The Bedford High School class of 2008 is proud to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Dan Niven.

He exemplifies what it means to educate with enthusiasm. Although passionate, his laid-back classroom atmosphere allows students to find their own voice. He has inspired us to push ourselves beyond our own expectations. His genuine care and concern for each student is one of a kind. Niv, we thank you for treating us as equals and we thank you most for your sense of humor and hearty laugh.

Juniors

Channel 2009

Junior year is seen as the most important year of our high school careers. As juniors, we are opened up to many new opportunities, such as Semi, Junior Prom, licenses, and Bleacher Painting. However, the year is not all fun and games. Junior year is the one colleges concentrate on most. Therefore, we must buckle down with our academics in order to achieve the grades we want the colleges of our dreams to see. Not only do we have to work hard in our classes, but junior year also means prepping ourselves for the dreaded SAT. Though classes seem to drag on forever and we count down to Friday each week, these past three years seem to have just flown by. We'll be senior's next year, so let's make the most of it, because after that, we'll all go our separate ways and find out what the future holds for each of us.

All-fro-one. Tommy Barkovic and Eric Devaux ponder the meaning of life during this year's twin day.

Fun in the sun. Annie Leslie and Adrienne Jarvis chill out at the freshman orientation, protecting their eyes from that blazing sun.

So fine, 09. The junior class shows off their spirit at this year's pep rally.

Tough crowd. Though they may have participated in other spirit day events, this time Joe Tiano, Jimmy Ferro, and Dewayne Clacher were just part of the crowd.

Bucappella. Mike Dunlea and Hamish MacPhail bring a harmonic end to the Tournament of Plays...which the Juniors won.

Off to a good start. Chris Donovan, Alex Bradford, and Alex Russo prepare the freshmen for the wonders of high school.

Friends forever. Kelsey Hartwell and Cora Bentley show how much fun they have in school.

Happy Couple. Max O'brien and Sophie Bell exchange words of affection in this years Tournament of Plays.

Sophomores

Channel 2010

We're halfway there! And that is just one of the many perks of being sophomores. We've completed our second year of high school and we are no longer "The Freshmen". Our team for the pep rally stepped up their game and the sophomore class was represented well. Many of our classmates have made varsity sports and really contributed to their team greatly. Our talented actors and actresses also performed well under pressure at the annual tournament of plays. The class of 2010 is adapting to high school and we have made our mark!

Heave-Ho. The sophomore class gave it their all in this years Tug of War at the pep rally.

Put your hands together. Brandon Watson, Mike Rubin, David Raimondi and others cheer on the class of 2010.

Hypnotized. Matt Tiano, J.D. Anderson, and Scott Johnson, watch closely at the Bon Fire.

In the zone. Chris Abner is hard at work in the school's new computer lab.

Even the rain couldn't stop Dan Johnston, Zander Smith, and Dennis Warner from going to Bedfrog Day.

Rock on. Paul Klein and Cotter Ellis get in the groove while playing for the band.

Lunch Time! Ryan Molloy and Natasha Shopshire eat their delicious school lunches while taking advantage of the new courtyard.

Freshmen

Channel 2011

"The class of 2011," says a freshman with despair in her voice. "That's like...a million years away." Although it may seem like that for some freshman who still watch the Disney Channel when they get home from school, it will be here before you can change it to Nickelodeon. While freshman year means more homework, longer classes, and being pushed around by the big, tough upperclassmen, it also means breaking away from all those rules in middle school. Now we have a snack break in the morning and can get home twenty minutes earlier to watch Hannah Montana. It also means that we get to make new friends who have been all over the world, like the Wild Thornberries. Cheer up freshman. You'll get to watch MTV and PG-13 movies soon enough.

Hangin' out. Derek Dennis and Grant Ribler enjoy a nice summer day.

The freshman show how well they can work together as a class at the freshman orientation.

Steph Parham, Eli Barkovic and Amanda Szlosek gather round to hear about what they are about to experience in high school.

Watch and learn. One of the most important things to do freshman year is to pay attention and learn. Kayla Larson, Jenny Keefe and Amanda Szlosek show that they can do this.

Harley Glenn and Kylie Foy consult each other about their upcoming high school career.

Barbara Feuerstein, Jaqui Choen, Bryanna Rowley and Molly O'Neill feel the wind in their hair.

Alexander Cuti, Anthony Chang, Dave Matthews, Eunho Kim and Michael Chiu take part in the activities at the Freshmen Orientation.

DCL Primetime

"It's Not About You, It's About the Guy Next to You". This quote was the one that Coach Belcher chose to not only set the tone for the season, but to try to instill in each one of his players throughout the season. This entire season was a series of forward strides, constant improvement, and discovering what everyone was made of. From the bus ride to camp in New Hampshire, until the final whistle of the Thanksgiving Day Game vs. Concord, the football bucs were constantly learning about eachother, themselves, and learning how to apply this knowledge to playing football as a band of not only teamates, but friends.

The Bucs were unique in their youth, as the team had only four seniors total, and Two that started. Players such as Kevin Cangiano, Tim Pike, Tim McDonald, Matt Tiano and Chris Abner found that they would have large roles as sophomores in the starting lineup, while guys like Brendan Gibson, Tim Steinberg, Manny Soto, and Dave Micu had the responsibility of taking these young players and inspiring them to raise their level of play. The season culminated in a fitting way

. Not only did the Bucs defeat arch rival CCHS for the first time in many years, but it also became evident that many of these young stars had risen to their challenge, and the team was playing better collectively than ever before. This leaves the future for the Bucs looking even brighter, especially since the DCL divides into two leagues, leaving Bedford with an opportunity to compete against towns of similar size. The 2007 season was definetly quite memorable, and the departing seniors leave here with the bragging rights to the most wins ever by a single class.

Captain: Brendan Gibson

A DCL All-Star at linebacker, Gibson, who started as a sophomore, made a huge impact on the team's performance this season. Look to see Gibson shine even brighter in his senior year.

Captain: Tim Steinberg

Tim, a returning starter at guard for the Bucs, was one of two seniors to start this season. Tim was a DCL All-Star at the guard position and played tough linebacker all season for the Bucs.

Line em' Up!

Sophomore Phenom Kevin Cangiano gets the Buc offense rolling behind his trusty linemen.

Young Talent:

Tim McDonald, one of Bedford's rising stars, sprints down to make a hit on kickoff Face Off! The young, aggressive, and agile Buc Defense shows Latin what they're made of.

Top Row: Sam Foltz, Ben Davis, Andrew Davis, Derek O'Rourke, Dylan Curtin, David Raimondi, Jimmy Ferro, Ben Rose, Kevin Spooner
Middle: Mike Dirane, Justin Brooks, Brandon Addison, Matt Tiano, Joe Tiano, K.C. Mondello, Scott Johnson, John Humphries, Tim Barry, Shaw, Louis Baker

Hard, Smart, Together

The boy's varsity soccer team had a good season but came up just short. The team was lead by head coach Dave Boschetto and assistant coaches Gunnar Olsen and Josh Steffan. The team was just one win away from the tournament in the new DCL small. The high point in the season came when they tied Concord-Carlisle, the number 1 team in the state.

Dan Kitterman, JD Rogers, Aaron Smiles, Greg Margolis, and Luke Badalaty will be graduating next spring. Although the team will be sad to lose five strong seniors, the outlook for next season is very good with many talented returning underclassmen who will not doubt lead the team into another strong season, maybe even a DCL title.

Co-Captain Aaron SMiles

Although some may say that our season was not so great, I have to disagree with them. We are one of the few teams that can say we tied the number one team in the state. Thanks to everyone who helped make the season entertaining and also one of my favorite seasons I have had in High School.

Co-Captain Dan Kitterman

"We really believed in each other this year and played as a team. We 'Drank the Kool-Aid' so to speak"

Push Through. Aaron Smiles fights off two Newton South defenders on the way to a 5-1 victory.

Midfielder, Dan Kitterman follows his pass to a forward up field.

Painful. Hamish McPhail gets a low blow from a Newton South goalkeeper.

Girls Soccer

This season was a season to remember. We had a very heartbreaking loss against Concord-Carlisle for the small DCL-Championship, but we still had a very successful season. We played hard and never gave up, especially in the homegame against defending state champs, Acton-Boxborough. Even though we lost, we still played with true heart and determination and never thought once about giving up. There was amazing team chemistry both on and off the field, one of the determining factors of this year's success. No game ever lacked excitement, and we came out each and every day ready to play our hardest in both practice and games.

Captain: Colleen Strachan
"Although we weren't able to win the DCL this year, we still had a good season and accomplished a lot of goals."

Captain: Corinne Weeks
"Soccer is the best sport ever. I love it sooo much and I really want to play in college. It will be soooo much fun!"

Stick To It

The record of the BHS Field Hockey team does not adequately reflect their outstanding effort on the field. With their great determination, the team managed to tie Newton South twice and Tyngsborough once.

This year the Dual County League split into two leagues, large and small. This will give the Field Hockey team a better chance to succeed in their games. This year's captains, Charlene Asp, Kristina Piccirillo, and Alex Ulsh, acted as great role models for the rest of the team and helped younger players improve their skills. The rest of the seniors this year were also a great asset to the team and next year's seniors hope to match their teamwork, dedication, and spirit.

Put your guard up. Senior goalie Alex Ulsh defends the goal from the opposing team.

Smack That

This years volleybucs started off strong with 2 strong wins, and although they stalled in the middle of the season, they finished off with a 5-15 record. That record matched last year's, and qualified them for the state tournament. Everyone played well in their first round game against O'Bryant High pulling off a 3-1 win.

In the second round game the Bucs played Wayland, who that had split against in the regular season, and ended up winning 3-2 after 5 long intense games.

That win qualified them for the semi-finals. In the third round the volleybucs faced Melrose, and although they lost 3-1, the team was happy with the fact that they won one game against a team that had not lost a match and had only lost one other game all season. They were also very proud that they had made it farther in the tournament than ever before.

Bridget Barrett

"We are so proud of how far we made it this year. Beating Melrose in the first game of the match proved to everyone how far we had come."

Lauren Sarson

It Keeps You Running

This year has been a year of progress for the BHS Cross Country team. In the competitive DCL, Bedford finished with a 3-6 record and 6th out of 10 teams. This was very impressive considering they were often going up against much bigger schools with many more runners on their cross country teams. The team was led by junior captains Alex Bradford and Chris Donovan. These two captains, along with coach Solomon Chebor, helped form a more dedicated and close knit team.

The boys team has a bright future ahead of them. With the majority of varsity runners being juniors, they are looking to be even better next year with their gained experience from facing tough competition. Junior Jonathan Gault dominated the league during his first year on the cross country team. He was the teams most successful runner and set the Bedford course record. Most impressively he finished 2nd overall at the DCL meet.

The girls team looks to be on the right path as well for next year. Many new members joined the team this year, lead by Freshman Devon Tate. The girls have a promising future ahead of them and look strong for next year.

Overall the BHS Cross Country team had a very successful season and are looking forward to being even better next year.

BHS Tour

This year's Bedford Golf season was exciting and rewarding. Last year's DCL Medalist John Isnor returned as our leading scorer. He averaged 14 points per match early in this season in a Modified Stableford scoring system. He showed tremendous power by driving the green on some of our par fours and proved that he will continue to be a force to be reckoned with in the coming seasons.

Our Co-Captains, Andy Westerkamp and Alex Heyl, were two of our steadiest performers.

Other Seniors, Scott Bratton and Mike Haynes also contributed in numerous ways.

New team member, Kelly Sullivan, started out well and even improved as the season went on. Kelly showed that she can compete with anybody in our league and she beat the best male golfers on many of our opponents.

Kelly and John were this year's representatives at the DCL Medalist Tournament at Concord Country Club. Neither Kelly or John won the tournament but they represented Bedford well. The Bedford Golf Team was given the prestigious Sportsmanship award at the Tournament. All team members deserve credit for representing Bedford Golf so well.

Next year we return one of our Captains, Alex Heyl who was one of our top scorers and consistently. Tristan Osgood was also an important part of the team as he was their third leading scorer. Tristan is no stranger to hitting it long and he gave many of our opponents fits during the course of this golf season. Great Season Bucs!

Fire...Up!! Fall Varsity

Cheerleaders gave a great show of spirit and pride this year. With a new look for the uniforms cheerleaders were amped and the crowds got ROWDY! The girls participated in competition and although they had a great performance they sadly didn't place. They only hope to improve for next year and continue to keep the fans pumped!

Got spirit? Yes they do. They got spirit...How about you?

The girls congratulate a great play on the field.

Glory Roads

The Bucs had another impressive season. They ended the regular season 17-3, dropping those three games by a total of only six points. The Bucs flew into the play-offs with a number three seed and easily knocked off the first two teams they played. Unfortunately for the fourth time in a row the Bucs had to face Watertown, the team that had knocked them out of the tournament the past three years. Sadly the team dropped the decision again, but ended the season with one of the best played games of the season. Two of the captains summed up the basketball experience best:

Josh Kalendarian: This team isn't just about basketball, its about a group of guys coming together to become a part of something that is way bigger then themselves. We poured everything we had in the past four years of our lives to try to accomplish something that no other group of guys have done in this school and it has not just made us teammates, but also best friends. Basketball has not just helped me get through high school, but being with the guys on the team has helped me grow into the person I am now and for that I am forever grateful.

Terrance Favors: This team is family and will be truly missed when im not here next year. Although basketball brings us together during winter its my teammates that make it just that special to be around. I will be surrounded by my new teammates next year but these guys will always have a place in my heart.

INDOOR TRACK, ASSEMBLE!

Whether it was long "runs" around the school and getting acquainted with the new balcony or sneaking food into the Reggie Lewis Center, the indoor track team knows how to have a good time. While forced to compete against much larger schools, team members always supported each other. Despite being such a small team, there were a few individuals that shined in their events. Captains Jon Gault and Hope Bigda-Peyton made states along with Sarah Gault, Hamish MacPhail, Katelyn Mohen, and Dell Bennett. By the end of the season, the team was practically family.

Now, go on a 10 minute school-run.

The captains of the swim team this year were Kevin Lu, Dennis Lam, and Katie Levenstein. The team swam against more difficult teams this year, due to the changing of the league, but they worked hard and swam very well against these teams. The team has been growing every year, which is great because it used to be so small, and since the team has gained more swimmers it has become much more successful. The practice are intense and involve both in and out of water work-outs, and while these workouts are grueling, the team still manages to have an awesome time at practices, meets, and team gatherings. The swim team was very successful this year, even though they didn't have an undefeated season, all the swimmers improved immensely.

HOCKEY

This year was a fun and fulfilling year for the BHS hockey team. For the first time, the team had its own home rink at The Edge Sports Center, as opposed to the past several years where they have played at Valley Sports in Concord. The team was shown more support than in recent years as many fans came out to The Edge to watch all of the games. Some came for the action and competition while others came to watch the teams big men, Andy and Will, hit players on the other team. With a large, talented underclassmen portion of the team, BHS hockey has a very bright future in the coming years.

It was a chilly January afternoon at Mount Noshobo. There was a certain tingle in the air that felt like victory, and the BHS Alpine Ski Team felt it. In their ex-baby diaper bibs, the team made their way to the summit to prepare for the race. The anticipation was tense, butterflies a flutter in the stomachs of the skiers. Some racers jumped up and down to keep warm, some talked, some forgot their race time and went skiing in the park. No matter what they were doing, they wanted to race. As the snow demons were called to the race start they knew bounty that waited for them past the finish. They had their two coaches; a snowboarder, and a firefighter with a crippled arm, waiting to share their assuring words of wisdom. There was the hot chocolate with tiny little marshmallows, and those awesome mini peanut butter treats. But, to reach that bounty, the skiers had to pass through pure technical challenge. The skiers knew what they had to do, they had trained well in the winter wonderland that is Nashobo Valley Ski Area. All they needed to hear were the ubiquitous words, "Racer ready, 3-2-1 GO!" Skibaggah, oh yes, ski baggah.

Cheers

Unlike the cold weather outside the Winter Cheerleaders were HOT this year with new uniforms and new moves. They helped to cheer on the team and keep the crowds P-S-Y-C-H-E-D. They participated in two competitions this year. In the second competition the girls earned a second place trophy!

With three seniors leaving after this year, the team may suffer a loss. However five freshman on the varsity team, there are only HIGH hopes for the upcoming years. Mrs. Billouin worked hard with the team to choreograph and perfect routines, and did a great job!

For the past several seasons the boys basketball team has provided the school with an annual event--the playoffs. The games, however, are about more than just a chance for the players to showcase their talents. They are a chance for students, parents, alumni, faculty and fans to come together in celebration.

Tournament of Plays

The annual Tournament of Plays on November 30th, 2007 was one of the best all-around performances BHS has put on in a very long time. Each grade raised the bar and delivered with witty dialogue, impressive sets, and award-winning acting. Though a valiant effort by all, the Sophomore class came away with the win, beating the others to the finish line.

Cafe-A was noisy and bustling as students went from table to table in search of free candy and interesting clubs to join. In the initial excitement of the Activities Fair, the majority of BHS students joined more clubs than they could ever have time to attend. However, the students that remained committed to their clubs demonstrated a broad diversity of interests at BHS. From numerous bake sales, competitions, and community service initiatives to simply hanging out with friends, eating, or chatting in a foreign language, BHS clubs offer a welcoming community and a place for students to explore their passions.

Science League

Top Left: Got Smart? Jacob Moore, Emily Eggert, and Kristine Tom work on part of a challenge for the Science League.

Right: Bombs away! Sam Roseman, Marissa Weichman, and Sowmya Varada get ready to launch a catapult.

The Science League is the perfect group for anyone passionate about science. Members of the club compete against other towns doing science challenges and have always done well. Want proof? Check out the trophies in lower H that this clever club has garnered.

Inquiry

Right:
Inquiry reenacts a significant event in American history.

Inquiry in most basic terms is like a mock U.N. Every year, Inquiry participates in an annual event at Tufts U. Inquiry clubs come from states all over the U.S. to participate in this event. It is a lot of fun, as well as very educational and informative about current events.

H.O.S.T & Stylus

HOST provides an easy transition into BHS and is a great way to introduce new kids to the way things actually work around here.

Top: Welcome! Hosts give new students the lowdown on BHS.

H.O.S.T. (Helping Our Students Together) is a program that started at the end of 2006-2007 to give new students a personal guide of our school. The arriving students are matched up with a "host" who shares similar interests, and who can offer a casual and welcoming tour to introduce them to the student life at BHS.

Right: The Stylus crew pose for a recreation of the last supper.

Stylus is the renowned literary magazine of BHS. A group of students dedicate a lot of time and effort into releasing this magazine several times a year. If you have a piece of literature you wrote and you are proud of, don't hesitate to submit it!

Junior Mentors

Top: Freshmen enjoy an orientation barbecue and catch up after the summer.

Junior Mentors is a large club compiled of Juniors that are model students and good role models. Their job is to set an example of how a BHS student should act and excell, as well as help the Freshmen settle into high school life.

Spanish Club

Right: The Spanish Club gathers for an activity celebrating Spanish culture.

Top: Death can be a party! Mae Steinberg and Estefi Castañada chat while decorating sugar skulls for el Día de los Muertos.

Right: Candy! The Spanish Club entices new members with sweets and sombreros.

Top: ¡Viva México! Nisha Acharya and Nicolle Kuhn enjoy festive Latin culture at the Activities Fair.

The Spanish Club celebrates Hispanic culture by hosting fiestas to give members the opportunities to practice speaking in Spanish, listen to Spanish music, and even learn some spicy dance moves from Spain or Latin America. ¡Que caliente!

Dance Club

Hard work clearly pays off - Bedford's dancers impress the school with performances at the pep rally and at the end of the year dance show. Can't put a damper on these bangin' moves!

Left: Katie Donnellan leads off one of the Dance Club's smokin' performances.

Top: Step up! Janelle Clachar and ... step to the beat.

ROTC

ROTC is a large BHS club as well as a class. Kids interested in going into the military after high school, or even kids just interested in the military related activities and events, really enjoy ROTC. ROTC is an interactive club as well, giving students the chance to meet ROTC members from other schools.

Recently I sat down with Officer Wardwell, the Resource Officer. After 15 minutes I concluded that he is a cool dude. Not only does he protect us, but he also takes eighth graders to Washington D.C. and even finds some time to play with us.

What are some hobbies that you like? Do you like baseball?

"When you feel like giving up, remember why you held on for so long."

"Never regret your past-what's meant to be will be."

"You know dey' saw youuu!"

"We ride together; we die together; Bucappella's fo lyfe!" First and foremost I want to thank God for blessing me these past four years; without His guidance I would have never been able to achieve as much as I have. Next I want to thank my family for their continuous support that gave me strength to keep moving forward even when I found myself ready to quit. Not only have you endured my constant complaining, but you are the reason I am who I am today. I hope I've made you guys proud! My MADS buddies and fellow Bucappella founders, Andrew and Joe...one phrase: ALL STARS ARE WE READY?... YES WE READY-YES WE READY!!! Memories with you guys have been priceless and only more to come. My LOEGP members, all I know is that "J Viddi" is about have her car keyed! Corinne (Gassy Weeks), we started off as acquaintances and then you became my personal stalker...jus kiddin! I thought having every class with you was gonna be a killer, but I guess it turned out aight! Alli G...all I have to say is ur madd rude...or at least you used to be! I would have never passed math if it wasn't for you...good lookin out gl! Pallavi, my neighbor since elementary... fun times drivin to school, and I'm sure I'll be seeing you around! Jen, Bridget, and I Hopey...always coming through with bomb baked goods and never losing touch even when we didn't have classes' together, thanks guys. Colleen, definitely the goofiest laugh ever heard, made English class all the more interesting. The infamous "white bread," otherwise known as "salmon." Good memories my friend. Leather, my fellow class officer and the glue that held everything together all these years! Working together built an amazing friendship that will continue on. We did it guys... BHS CLASS OF OHIIHHH 8" STAND UPP!

Keith Anderson

Above all, I'd like to say thank you to all my friends who made my last years of high school a memorable time. I wish I could thank all of you guys individually because each one of you has made the experience worthwhile. However, I don't have the money to list all of you, but if you are one of my friends, thank you for the best times of my life.

Rebecca Aronson-Waintrup

These were really crazy years. I want to thank my mom for always being there for me and my dad, Taylor, Bill, Linda, Kimberly, Samantha, and the rest of my family for being a great family and being there for me too. I want to thank Liz for being my best friend throughout most of high school and all the fun and interesting memories we've had together. I'd also like to thank Lindsay for being another best friend and for all the fun nights and jokes we've had. I'd like to thank Mike and Warren for being so interesting and being such fun friends. I'd like to thank Ana and Michelle for all the good times. I'd like to thank Greg for growing up with me and still being my friend. To all my other friends, you know who you are, thanks so much for all the great memories. Lastly, I'd like to thank everyone for making my high school experience unique. I wish you all the best.

Charlene Asp

I'd like to thank everyone that has helped me, especially: Mom- Thank you for all the work that you've done for me. Also for all the support that you've given me throughout the years. Coming to all my games and cheering me on. I really appreciate everything you have done. Thank you. Dad- Thanks for the support you have given me throughout my life. Even though you haven't been at all my games I know you wanted to be there. Thank you for everything that you have done for me, helped me with, and taught. I can't thank you enough. Meagan- Thanks for putting up with me, everything that I say to you. Thank you for playing catch with me. Also for encouraging me to do things. I know you didn't have to do any of these things, but I am really glad that you did. Gamma- Thank you for coming to all of my games even when I didn't ask you to. I really appreciate you being there and cheering me on even when I wasn't doing that well. I don't know how to thank you enough. I want to say thank you to all my friends and my team mates. I couldn't have gone through all the practices with out you guys. I want to thank everyone who has been there for me.

For as long as I can remember, I have been the guy who has mentioned how I want to get out of Bedford A.S.A.P., usually while mentioning how the state of California is better. Now, that the end of our time in Bedford is quickly approaching, I find myself.....even more ready to leave. Sorry, I wasn't going to pull any sentimental crap, I'm ready for a change of scenery. Anyway, on to my short and sweet thanking of people. First, I would like to thank all of my teachers, especially those in the Art (Sheinfeld, you're the man), English, and Social Studies departments. To my friends: Sorry guys, no names. I'm cheap, and I'll probably forget someone, what can I say. Lets just say, If you have ever hung out (or spilled anything) in my basement, sim-puked in my sink and toilet, participated in one of my "fiestas," snuck out of school to go to a Red Sox game, shared gingersnaps, or attended a concert with me, you belong in my senior thanks. Thanks friends, we should all turn out all right wherever we end up, right? Well, that's about it, adios everybody, I'm sorry if I were a little weird throughout the years, I would be so boring otherwise.

I'm thankful for many things, but mostly I'm thankful I'm done. Thanks to my whole family for pushing me through school. My brother Keith, thanks for knocking me out and doing stupid stuff with me. Thanks to all my friends, I can't afford to name all of you, but you know who you are. The XC team, keep tippin' them trees! My team and 2nd family, Northern Persuasion, keep ballin. And to everybody else: bye.

Here we are...Senior year. I couldn't have got through these past 18 years without the help of my family and friends, so here's to them. MOM - for picking me up from everywhere, taking care of me when I'm sick, coming to all my sports games, seeing things the way they truly are, and encouraging me to explore my musical side... DAD - for always being up for a good discussion - whether it be about sports, politics, or just joking around. Thanks for coaching virtually every team I've been on, teaching me lessons in life, always being up for one of my strange ideas or jokes, and for always being around to do something fun when I'm bored. KATIE - You've always been a fun and upbeat person to be around, and there's never been a dull moment! Thanks for always being able to make me laugh, watching syndicated TV, supporting my good ideas, and helping me with schoolwork. TIM - Thanks for being a good older brother - playing sports, video games, a lot of laughs, giving me advice in sports, music, or life in general. For letting me hang around with you and your friends when I was younger, driving me places...you've definitely had a large influence on my personality and humor. TARA - Thanks for always understanding the oddity of my humor, for always giving and I have good memories of our trips, going out for dinner, making up games and just hanging out. I'll always look back and cherish these memories with you

Chuck, my older brother, you have been my role model for as long as I can remember. We have had so many good times together: making up wrestling moves, playing sports and playing video games. Laura, you are one of the kindest people I have ever met and the best sister I can ask for.
Whenever I need someone, I can count on you to always understand and to look out for me, thank you. Thanks to the rest of my family, I love you all so much.
Now for my friends, the reason school was worth waking up for at 6:50 in the morning. Brian- You are one of the best friends I have ever had - we have had some amazing times at your house watching, and in your car singing the High School Musicals. I'll miss you. Dan- It was awesome to end up randomly lost in Weston one night when we had nothing to do. We were a juggernaut duo when it came to messing with people. You are hilarious and I can always count on you to make me laugh. Josh- Slip n' Slide with the macho man helmet was hilarious, we have had a lot of good times together. Greg, Kyle, and Chris- Thanks for all the funny and awesome times we have shared together.
Other friends: JD, Josh Kal, Joe B, Keith, Mike T, Aaron, Nick, Andrew, Joe S, and Dan K. Last but not least, Hannah- You are an amazing and beautiful person, and you have made high school an amazing experience. I know I can always count on you to make me smile and always put me in a good mood, thank you so much. I will miss you terribly. Thank you to everyone else I missed.

-Mom and Dad thank you for everything you have done for me throughout my past eighteen years. Thank you for always having faith in everything I do and being there for me everyday. Ana, Nick, and Ben thank you all for being the best older siblings I could ever ask for. Thank you Maher cousins for spoiling me and always putting a smile on my face. Love you all.

-Thank you Bucs soccer for 4 amazing years of soccer especially my last two years. Thank you for being all amazing people and soccer players. Good luck next year, I'll miss you all!

-Thank you teachers for helping me get to where I am today in my academics. Thank you especially Ms.Sav for putting up with me with me for 4 years in high school, I couldn't have asked for a cooler or better I.C teacher.

-Thank you bestfriends and friends for all that you have done for me to make my years amazing, being crazy with me and always keeping me happy.

-Camp Favorite thank you all for making me a better

Niven, sorry, this is going to be corny. But thanks for helping me last year. Griff, Doc, and Luke: thanks for all of your guidance. To my friends who have put up with me these past years and have kept me relatively sane, to family for support only you guys can give, to my procrastinating buddies, and to my endless music playlist:
thanks for everything. Oh, and thanks for this thanks that I procrastinated on.

Mom- Thank you for being you! Thank you for every meal you have ever made me, for doing my laundry, for having such good taste, and for turning me into a complete California girl. You have always been there for me. I appreciate it more than I can ever say. Dad- Thank you for watching Red Sox games with me, for teaching me to play tennis, and for always asking "How'd your riding lesson go?" You always have a way of showing me that you care, and that means the world to me. Cait- Thank you for being the best big sister I could ever ask for. Thank you for introducing me to my love of fashion, for all the times you did my hair and makeup before a dance, for being so caring, and for putting up with me. You are so beautiful.

Riley- For being the sweetest pup ever! Ashley- Thank you for coming up to me on our first day of kindergarten!
If you hadn't, I don't know how I would have made it through the past 13 years. Thank you for being my best friend, for your ability to know what I'm thinking just by looking at me, for all the times we've rocked out to music in your car, and for being spontaneous with me! You are amazing. Bridget- For being my friend since 2nd grade!
Thank you for busting out moves with me on the dance floor, for all the times we have laughed together, and for always being there when I need to talk. I will never forget the seven years of French classes we've endured together!
Brian- Thank you for walks to Davis school, aerosmith, rides in your car, and for always being a gentleman. Your friendship has meant so much to me. But most of all, thank you for liking me for who I am. Dan- Thank you for being a geek! Just kidding. Thank you for always making me smile no matter what, for all the text messages, for letting me punch you (or try to), and for being an amazing friend. Josh- Thank you for always making me laugh. More importantly, for being my History Fair partner! Thanks for sticking out U-His with me, no matter how many times we complained, for photo class, and for being a math dork.
Jacqi- Thank you for Ben jokes at BF, for being a Starbucks fanatic, and for being able to talk about anything. Thank you for being one of the most caring people I know.
Caitlin- Thank you for going to horse camp with me! I'm so glad we had that experience together. Thank you for always being so kind and so caring, I'll never forget it.
Katie- for learning the Crazy in Love dance with me, Eggo waffles, and for always making me feel welcome in your home. Maya- for your love of fashion, for our random shopping trips, for experiencing L.A. together for the first time! Thank you for always understanding me. Catherine-BEEF! For country concerts, beach days, OC nights, and Maine. Thank you for growing up with me and being my second sister from day one. Bedford Farms- Thank you to Dave and Mr. V for being the coolest bosses ever! To all the girls for making every shift fun, hilarious, and go by a little bit faster. Thank you to the Iwanchuk's, the Hlinker's, and the Kelty's. Also thank you to Ana, Jen, Lauren, Greg, Kyle, Corinne, Katie L, Joe, Tim and anyone else that made high school a little more tolerable.

Thanks to my family and friends for putting up with me, my drama, and my crude sense of humor, which I'm sure offended someone at some point... every day. I'm not gonna say names, because then I'll forget someone and be called out on it. So if someone forgets to sign this, I'll forget about them. So sign my yearbook. AFJROTC is the best program this school has. I've made some great friends in it, and the teachers are amusing, although bizarre. The past three years on the rifle team were awesome. Too many practices makes for a tight knit group, until the season ends and we all run away screaming. The trap team, although I've only been on it for two years, is great. People who shoot just seem to be more fun to hang out with. At the beginning of this sentence, I had fourteen words left. kthxbai

Thanks to my parents for never letting me slack off completely, my friends for the laughs and parties, History Fair for making life miserable and allowing me to experience my first all-nighter, the French movie group for having the best projects ever, my teachers for making class interesting, the construction that followed us from school to school, and finally the Bedford Public Schools for never giving us snow days.

MOM: Thanks for everything. I'm truly lucky to have a mom as cool and caring as you are. I'm continually learning to appreciate everything you've done for me. DAD: I'll always be your little girl. Thanks to you I'm not only growing into the best person I can be (with a great sense of humor), but also the best Sox/Pats fanatic I can be!

SEANY-BOY: I'm going to miss you being around, even though you're annoying (I'm kidding. Kind of). NANA & GRANDPA: You mean the world to me. I love you both so much! LISA: I'm really happy that we've become closer over the past few years. You've been a huge role model to me. CHRIS: Thanks for being there to talk to, especially for the times I've needed advice and you've been the only person I can trust. Love you, buddy. ELENI: My best friend. Since the summer before 8th grade we've literally been attached to the hip. I can't even remember a time when we haven't died laughing. You've ALWAYS been there for me, even through the ups and downs and I love you tons! Yiyi. (Thanks to the Wallace's for letting me hang around even when Len's not home.) ETHAN: Baby, you're incredible. You always know how to make me smile and keep me grounded. You're someone that has been a huge impact on my life and thank you for every amazing memory. One love might make the difference. JACQI: Thankyou for being my salad buddy!! I love you! FAMILY/FRIENDS: thanks for supporting me through school and dance, teaching me everything that has made me who I am today. Special thanks to I:SOD: For the past 7 years you guys have been my life. I don't even know what I would have done without dance!

The end of our high school education close. There were so many great times like "booj" and "righteous." Those moments will stay in our memories forever. I would like to thank my parents for helping me through the years of school, my buds for all the good times goofing off, and my teachers for instilling so much knowledge that will help me in years to come. Thank you all.

I would like to thank my family for always pushing me to try my best and always being a pain in the butt, especially my brother. I would like to thank all my teachers Ms. Sav, Mr. Peters, Dr. Haswell, Captain Carson, Chief Edris and Ms. D'entremont to say a few. I want to thank God for helping me not to flip out on teachers and not getting into trouble during my high school career. My friends that helped me laugh and chill out when times were stressful. My friends in ROTC, and even out of ROTC that helped get through school. Sam Foltz and I stalk of corn. Hopefully in four years I will be a 2nd Lt. In the Air Force.

Thank you to my family, I don't know where I'd be without you. Mom, I cannot imagine a more amazing woman upon which to model myself. Dad, you are incredible, I couldn't have asked for more in a dad. The rest of my family, you're truly one of a kind and I can't imagine life without you. My friends, thank you for everything - for being there no matter what, for alphas, for sparky and being best friends, for long talks while driving, countless trips to starbuck conversations in egg, late night trips for cookiedough icecream, going bowling with foreigners, volleyball, and for every other memory that I'll never forget. Thank Boschetto for teaching me to think, Rosecan for being passionate, Donnelly for knowing everything and all my other teachers. Thank you everyone for making me who am today, I'll never forget you, I'll never forget this.

Caitlin Hall

I remember coming home from my first day of freshman year and thinking, "I can't wait until I get out of this place." But as I begin my senior year, I finally appreciate how good we have it. To my teachers, thank you for constantly demanding better from me. Thank you to my friends for the laughs, late nights, and unconditional love. Most importantly, thank you to my family for shaping who I am today.

Samm Hamilton

First off, I would like to thank the people who made it possible for me to be alive, my parents. Although I have been a brat, they kept trying and succeeding in teaching me new lessons every day for when I grow up and go off in the world all alone. Except I know I won't be alone because my family will always be there for me, and ditto from me to them. Thank you Luscious Lucia and Ashy for being the bestest friends in the whole wide world a girl could have EVER!!! Las Tres Amigas forever!! Thank to all my buddies Ryan, Gabriel, Ashley, Keith, Dell, Dobrochka, Emily, Philip, JD, Paul, A.J., Peter Cottontail, Rob, and Alex, you guys rock my socks off! Thanks to the supah-fantastic ILY teachers thanks Ms. Tocci, who have helped me through school and inspired me so much. Thanks to everybody else I did not mention because you guys are too cool to be named. Thanks for helping me throughout life and for helping make me an amazing person with even more amazing friends and family. I'm at peace! I love all of you <3

Throughout all of my High School many people have influenced who I have become. I would just like to start thanking my homies. Scott - Thank you for always giving me a good laugh. Andy - Thank you for always giving me something to do on the weekends and making me fall in love with Halo. Josh - All I have to say is ay carumba. I - You never fail to stuff me like a turkey when it comes time to play basketball. Dan - Thank you for all the weird and made up words that I can add to my vocab. Greg - You give short athletes hope of actually being athletic. Brian - Thank you for always keeping the faith in the Pats and Red Sox. Sam - thanks for always being a good friend, even if that means being brutally honest. George - Thanks for always being a good friend and listening to me. My brother Jason - Thank you for showing me how always win an argument, even if you have no idea what we are talking about. Matt - Thank you for showing me that I should always want more and never be happy with what I have. Mike - Thanks for always giving me a fight and being someone who tries to make me be better. Mom and Dad - Thanks for always believing in me, taking care of and being there for me no matter what happens.

Hi, I just want to thank everyone who made High School so much fun for me. I especially want to thank my parent for pushing me to do well in school. Without you guys, to a good you always had you take apart. You the one I

I want to thank my brothers. Matt, you got me to start playing lacrosse and without you, I probably would not be considering playing in college. Jason, you gave me some eat advice about High School and how to make the best it. Also, if I ever had a question about anything that had do with cars, motors, or anything like that, you would the first person I would ask. Chris, anytime I wanted meone to play catch with or anything like that, you were ways there. Having a twin definitely has some benefits. Uncle Tom and Aunt Lisa, you guys made the frequent ps to New Hampshire lots of fun. Uncle Tom, watching and helping you work on boats, motors, and various other things, helped influence me into wanting to become an engineer. Last but not least, thanks to all my friends for making High School some of the best years of my life.

Amelia Henry

ow, I made it through high school but there are definitely few people that need to be thanked for helping me rough it. First off my mom and my dad, sure we fight and there were rough times but I owe everything to them. IOM: Thank you for always being there even when I didn't want to talk and just sat on your bed and cried. You've made these past years better without even saying a word. Thank you for working your butt off every day so that we can have the type of life we do, we are very lucky to have you. And thank you for editing all those essays even when I did them at the last second. I love you. DAD: sunny, 78°. Thank you for always being my best friend. All the times when I've called you because something went wrong or just to talk. It means a lot. Thanks for being the cool dad" and the one that all my friends love. And my dad, GO SOX! There are two more very important people in my family I can't forget to thank. GRAM: Thank you for always being supportive of me, coming to every concert, my basketball games and the football games. It means the world to me to know that you are always there for me. You make the best pumpkin bread in the world, tried to make it once but it wasn't as good. I love you mom, even though I'm going to college, I'll only be a phone call away. JILLIAN: You may be the most adorable and annoying sister ever but I still need to thank you for Without you I wouldn't have learned a lot of the things I know now. Just be sure you always work as hard as you can. And yes you can have my room when I leave. There are many friends I need to thank too. STEPH, you've been there for me through thick and thin. Thank you for all the good times. You've only got a year left, make the most of it, it won't be as good without me. "Don't get plashed!" "it's so coincidental!" "I laughed" there are like million & seven more. To all my other friends thank you for everything. ANNE "high five", DREW "it's cool", KRED, KYLE, TOM, MICAELA, ARIEL, GRANT, HARLOTTE, AMANDA, my AUNTS & UNCLES and all my past teachers. In the words of the Ataris; "Out of all I've learned in life, you always keep your friends close to your heart 'cause they will help you if you are falling down." love you all. Thanks!

Life is not measured by the number of breaths you take, but rather by the moments that take your breath away." first and foremost, my family.

MOM-From making my wagon in 4th grade to teaching me how to drive. You have the biggest heart and bubbliest personality of anyone. For being super religious and for everything you've done for me. You have taught me everything I know, I love you.

DADDY-For your amazing sense of humor. For always understanding how I feel and pushing me to be the best I can be. Your advice on sports, school and life is something I can never lose. You taught me so much about myself and the world, I love you.

DANIELLE-For your smoker's voice and for being hilarious. Thanks for always being happy and compassionate. You're the best little sister any girl could ask for, Lull.

GREG-You're like me in so many ways. For being good and kicking my butt at everything (besides Guitar Hero). You're always there to talk and are a great kid, love ya.

JENN-junebug, late nights and crazy moms. For being a friend and not just a cousin, much love.

Now to the girls; best friends since Davis days:

MEL-My twin. For always making me laugh, agreeing on almost everything, being attached for a ride, "I don't get it" and so much more. You always find the good in negative situations and can cheer me up in seconds. You're a wonderful person.

JAMIE-My personal psychiatrist. Your witty personality and way with words still continue to boggle my mind. You always know what to say and are always there to talk to. From driving around on beat nights to munchies at Wendy's. You're an amazing girl.

ALLI-You've been my friend since intramural soccer days. Thanks for always listening to what I have to say and loving the gossip. Your ability to push yourself and dedication to everything you do will truly pay off my little genius.

KRISTINA-No matter what you do, you make me laugh. Your goofy personality and big smile warm up every room you enter instantly. For being my co-worker, talking like Don Vito and for always being happy.

DAN-You're always there to confide in, no matter the situation. You know everything about me and are one of the best friends anyone could ask for. For your hilarious personality, a thousand secrets, 10 feet, your house and an endless list of inside jokes.

KEV-For feeding me at lunch and being a gossip. I will never forget your mumbling or immense amount of sweatshirts. You always laugh at my jokes when even I know they're not funny. You always brighten my day.

CORINNE- For your quietly goofy personality. You're the hardest worker I know and will run the world one day. For keeping me sane at soccer and despising the same people.

COLLEEN- For always tripping over the air and for your contagious laugh. I'm glad our families are both obsessed with god! You make me want to be a better person.

ASHLEY- for having every class together. For always being there for distraction and for listening to my stories.

TODD- For knowing each other too well. Thanks for all of the memorable times these past two years.

JKIPP-The nicest and most laid back guy I know. You're always there to talk to and share secrets.

JKAL-Without your loud, Armenian, ghetto jokes high school wouldn't have been the same. You were there for a good laugh and a good heart to heart.

HAYNES-Grandpas! For the rides and making it enjoyable every morning. MATT&PAT-For the fun times and for giving us something to do.

OG'S: MANNY-"Dude wtf?" and good times.

TERRANCE- for making me laugh. JERRY- true baller.

DEWAYNE- preaching

BRETT, DAV, AUSTIN- for your lingo and chill nights.

MIKE- I've gotten to know you so well. For always being there to vent to.

BASILE, FATZZ, JP- thanks for giving us a place to go and something to do.

SCOTT&ANDY- Your houses were always a blast, thanks for being so chill.

GEORGIA- kieecyahhh, it's too hot, get out my wicket and many more! MEG- for always offering your house on typical Bedford nights. JMO- saved my life. SOCCER GIRLS- Gabby, Kristen, Claire, Georgia, Sam, Olga, Kim and everyone else.

STEPH, OLIVIA, BRITT, COURTNEE, ALEX, TIM S, BRIAN and anyone else I forgot. Good luck class of '08!

Mom and Dad-Thank you for inspiring me to be the person I am today. You have been the biggest influence in my life and you have done an amazing job. There is no one better than you two. Mom-The past years you have been my mom, best friend, and fan. You support me in everything I do and that means the most. I know that I will always be able to call you and you will be there for me, as I am for you. I am proud of you for racing. I love you. Dad-You have influenced me to keep fighting no matter what challenge I face. Thank you for coming to every game, teaching me new things, and working so hard for our family. I know that you will always have a place for me at home and will always protect me. And yes, I will always go on a car ride with you. I love you. Andrew and Aaron-Thank you for making family time fun, protecting me, and teaching me more than I have ever wanted to know about video games. Despite our moments, you two mean the world to me and I will always be your big sister. You two are amazing and I love you. Tara-Thank you for drooling all over everything, being the same size as me, and always welcoming me home with the biggest tail wags. Kelsey-Thank you for teaching me about fashion, Berkshires, country music, dreams of California, having hour long talks about everything, always thinking the exact same thing as me and being my best friend for the past thirteen years. I would not sanely be here if it was not for you. Bridget (Bubi)-Thank you for going to camp and being my mom, sports, living at your house, laughing so hard we cry, crazy adventures, and our love of T/J. Cory-Thank you for listening, wakeboarding, dinners, loving me, supporting me, and always making time for me. I love you. Jen-Thank you for cooking, shopping, sleepovers, late night talks and funny stories. Lauren-Thank you for relationship talks, double dates, soulja boy, and memorable nights in the movie room. Brian-Thank you for being a ladies' man, IISM, Davis School, being our super fan, and your love for KC. Dan-Thank you for texting, locker visits, weekends, making fun of me, and always being able to talk to you. Nicky-Thank you for crazy stories, always laughing, and boy talks. Colleen-Thank you for your love of IISM, laughing in LABBB with me, and varsity lacrosse. Josh-Thank you for always making me smile and seeing the crazy side of things. Jacqi, Allie, Mel, Caitlin, Greg, Corinne, and Molly I: thank you. Thank you to all my volleyball, basketball, and lacrosse teams. Thank you Wilson Farms for consuming every weekend. Thank you Chapman, Barrett, Tate, and Waite families for everything. Thank you Mrs. Alexander and Mrs. Irving for being my favorite teachers. Thank you class of 2008, never forget the good times.

First I would like to thank the League. You all made high school great. Andrew, you are one of a kind. Dan, you are truly a clever and funny kid. Mike, you are going to go far in this world. Tom, you have been one of my best friends; thanks for all the rides. Joe, your comic relief proved invaluable last year. Kevin, you are the man; you put up with a lot from me; thanks for all the rides. Good times: The UMG, drama club, J. Vitti ruffled some feathers, Red Sox winning the World Series, Patriots dynasty, freshmen baseball, volleyball games, and storming the court at Lynn Tech. I would like to thank all of my teachers, namely, Mr. Griffin, Mr. Donnelly, Mr. Boschetto, Mr. Niven, Mr. Huff, and Mr. Maffa. Lastly, I would like to thank my family, the creators of Boy Meets World and Kanye.

Mom and Dad- Thank you so much for making high school easy, keeping me focused and always going to all of my games. Thank you for the countless skiing trips and the great times at loon. Thank you for all the camping trips and Cape Cod trips. Thank you for always being there for me and always being supportive. I no I'm the favorite, its okay you don't have to say it. Haha. I love you.

Derek- Thanks for being an annoying older brother. We have had so many good times together like concerts, skiing and vacations. We have so many more good times to come. I can easily beat you up I just never showed my true strength.

Scott- Thanks for being always being around to play lacrosse, football, or whatever in the backyard. We have had so many good times together. Keep working hard in school and make sure you help Lauren when she asks you. Lauren You're the only girl and you now know how to take a punch. Keep working at soccer, soon you'll be playing varsity. And don't worry, your not a brat, it's just a saying. I'll miss you a lot when I go to college; no one is going to ask to help them with spelling or math. Don't be afraid to call if you need help.

Matt- You're basically my brother. We have spent some much time together; camping, skiing, spending time in the cape and so many more. We have known each other since we were born and it is going to be strange without next year. I'm going to miss you making fun of people and us laughing together.

Corinne-First off, there is way too much to say to you, but thank you so much for always forgiving me. We have had so many good times together. Every time we are together is unforgettable. I'll never forget our near run in with that deer and you running over a skunk. Also our endless trips to Panera and Bedford Farms. You always can put a smile on my face. I am really going to miss you next year. I love you!

Jamie- We have been friends for so long and neighbors since we were babies. Thanks for all the great times; I'm going to miss you next year.

Josh- I'll never forget our childhood memories, the list is endless. We had so many great times playing home base. Thank you so much for all the great times.

Michelle- You're like my older sister. Thank you for all the funny times, like making fun of Derck and all the great times in the cape.

Steph- In addition to Michelle you're my other older sister. We had so many great time sitting on the beach or around the campfire. You're so easy to make laugh and so easy to laugh at. Thanks for all the great times; let's not let them end yet!

Brett- Although we went to different schools, you are still one of my best friends. Thanks for all the great times in the neighborhood, loon and the cape.

McL- We've been friends for what seems like forever. Thanks for always making me laugh when you made fun of something or someone.

Dan- Thanks for all the good times especially in gym class. No one can match our intensity.

Nicky- You're a red. Thanks for always laughing at my jokes.

Kristina- Sorry for being so mean to you, but thanks for always laughing at my goofiness.

Alli- So many memories, especially at Josh's house haha. You and Tim were Corinne and mine's dance partners and I'll never forget that.

Reynolds- Thanks for being great neighbors.

Tiano's- Thank you for so many great times at Loon. Thank you to my Grandparents, Aunts, Uncles and all my cousins. Also thank you Brett, Ashleigh, Bobby, Caitlin, Greg, Joe B., Tim C., Brian, Chris, Mike, Scott, Pat, Andy, James S., Gillian, Molly, Bridget, Kelsey, Laura, Georgia, Sam, Max, Lindsay, Erin, Todd, Jessica, The Lacrosse team, The Ski team, all my teachers, and the rest of the Class of 2008!

I would like to thank my parents for all they have done for me over the years. You guys have supported me in everything I have done and have helped guide me in the right direction. Deidre - Thanks for setting the bar so high while you were in high school and helping me get through these past few years. Luke - the definition of what a true friend is. Dan - You've been my dude since day 1, what more can I say. Davio - Maybe the funniest person I know. Over the past few years we have really become good friends, but if you're not out at 7:03 tomorrow morning I'm leaving you, I mean it this time. Alli - Our friendship is a love-hate relationship. Thanks for always helping me with school work and being a good friend. Nicky - You're one of my best friends and I know we will keep in touch. We can relate to each other on so many things and it's made getting to know you fun. Brian - You're a real stand up guy and not afraid to show your personality. I know you'll make it out in the real world. Terrance - We have had some good times these past years, from chillen at Brett's to beating Lynn Tech. I'll miss you next year. Billy - We've been friends since kindergarten and you are one of the most loyal people I know. Greg L. - You know I value our friendship, even if you're a die hard republican. Ryne - Even though you cannot go one day without fooling around or getting folded by me or D, we have always stayed tight. Jerry - I know we will remain friends, just as long as I don't throw your shoes right! Josh Kipp - Even before you were a teammate you were my friend and I know you'll do it big next year. I'd also like to thank God for blessing me with such a wonderful group of friends and family that have truly showed me what it is to be a good friend. High School has flown by and I can't wait to see what the future has in store for all of us.

My parents- thanks for forcing me to ride my bike everywhere, giving me rides to the bus stop/ halfway to school, making me paint the house, and pushing me to be the best I can be. Joe - "wanna do something crazy?" You are a strange boy Joe Ball. Thanks for all your awkward, memorable, and often crude comments. Josh Kal - To be honest, I don't understand half the things that come out of your mouth. It's funny all the same. Thanks for the laughs. Tim - "Just the meat and the bun. Cheese? No cheese?" Oh and Michelle... never mind. Greg - from playing on horrendous basketball teams, to coaching a team ourselves we've been through a lot together. Ps get Dante to get us some tickets this year! Chris - "ay carumba man, just live the dream." Brian - Your cameo, gender swapping appearances in our Spanish videos and unprovoked and utterly unnecessary over competitiveness will be greatly missed. Kelsey - Thanks for sticking with me while we drowned in the Olympic sized pool. Dan - "I'm cold..." You're good at everything you do, from football to mini golf. I don't even question how or why anymore. I've just come to embrace the phenomenon that is Dan Kitterman. Sam - thanks for providing me a target at which to throw my Gatorade bottles. Nicolle - Thanks for all the, sometimes intense, talks, stories, and laughs; but, high school will not be complete until I meet that grandpa you speak so highly about. Ashley - Thanks for being able to make me laugh without even trying. Mr. Sheinfeld - thank you for finding a place in your heart to pass me in photo even though everyone knows I should have failed. Shout out to: Kyle, Mike T, Keith, Kevin, and the band.

"Yo, check it out. Playing disc all night. Here's a tribute to you as we put it in flight" -The Frisbee Team
To all my friends who have always been there through high school. You all know who you are. High School would not have been fun without you all. To Sowmya and I hope for sharing the insanity that is History Fair. I'll never underestimate the effect of Cold War Politics ever again. To my Ocean Bowl teammates: Marissa, Staci, Sowmya, and Cat. Buzzing in with spirit. Buzzing out with new buzzers. To the math team: Marissa, Melody, Christie and Shreyas (and McGowan) leading another winning year. To the chess team: Mike, Tommy, and Eric. Keep practicing those queen mating-patterns. Gracias a John, Kevin, y Kim para haciendo "Caminando por la Vida" y "Te Robaré el Amor". Que Chevere. Alguna vez, necesitamos pelar las papas en la luna. Thanks to Kim, Jayson, Chunky, Dennis, Ihat and whoever else played Frisbee last summer. Good times. To the Frisbee team for having a great year and not giving me (too) hard a time. Ihat: you better keep Bedford a contender next year! And big thanks to Mr. Rose for being Frisbee club advisor. Running such a chaotic club ain't easy. To the McGowan for all those amusing van rides to chess and math meets. Don't forget to check the gas BEFORE you leave. To Mr. Huff for reducing Calculus into an obscure metaphor involving a closet full of biking gear. To Mr. Donnelly for redefining my view of the world in terms of opportunity cost. I could have been learning something else. And to Mr. Sunderland for the A+ on the synthesis paper. If you really want to know who Drew Toothpaste is, look up "Global Warming and Evolution" on YouTube.

These past four years of my life have been the best thus far. I'd like to thank my family, all my friends (you know who you are), f-ho girls, swim team (great times, even with all our drama), Bedford Farms, and the alphas. I would also like to thank fruit stickers for being such a motivation for me, especially the Braeburn apple for starting my collection, and all those people who helped me collect them.

Kevin Lu

KLu, Kev Kev

First of all I would like to thank my parents. You've always been there for me at all times during both the happiest and saddest moments. Next I would like to thank my two best friends Dennis and Nipunn, you guys have been like brothers to me and I hope that it will be the same in the future. I would also like to thank all my friends in no particular order: Staci, Minghan, Cat, Katherine, Jeff, Alex, Jesse, Kim, Erica, Soreen, Marissa, Dan, Lindsay, Sowmya, and Meghan. There were so many good times in the past 4 years that there is too much to write down. I'd also like to thank the swim team for always being there and just being that awesome. It's not just this year or last year but it's been all the years that I have been swimming with you guys. Swim team has definitely made high school bearable. I know I've been tough to deal with but you all have put up with me for my high school life and I thank you all for it. Also I have to thank some teachers that have helped me through high school: Mr. Maffa for putting up with me ever since the fourth grade, Mrs. Blake for being our coach for who knows how long, Mr. Rose for last year and this year as an assistant coach, Doc Has and Mr. Sunderland for writing my recommendations, and Mr. Berlino for being a great English teacher and chaperone for our Italy trip. For those of you I've missed I actually haven't missed you and if you rearrange some letters

Greg Margolis

Thank you to my parents who have always driven me to do the best that I could. You have always been there when I needed help with my school work and I appreciate that. Thank you Claire for everything, being there to talk to, playing tennis, getting ice cream, and just hanging out. You have been my best friend and I am going to miss you. Thank you to the soccer team, this year was great and I will remember it forever. Dan peep your foof. Davio thanks for making every practice fun no matter how much we had to run. Thank you to my friends especially Tim, Dan, Josh, Chris, Kyle, and Steve. Thanks Sam for being someone I could talk too about anything. And thank you Marina. Thanks to anyone I missed, you have made my time at Bedford High School very memorable.

Out of genetic obligation, I'll thank my family first - Mom and Dad, thanks for supporting me in each and every venture that I've ever undertaken and allowing me to stockpile trinkets for resale on eBay in crevices throughout your home. Molly, you're a cool sister. Usually. Onto my friends: Andrew - thanks for introducing me to wiffleball and being my go-to guy for a good joke. Also, thanks to your family for driving me to basically anywhere I needed to be for the past eight years. Tom - thanks for the good times and for loaning me money whenever I didn't have cash on me. I'd pay you back but this thing is expensive. Joe - for being good-natured and always providing a good laugh. We don't always see things the same way which makes for some interesting conversation. Mike - for always being rational and offering sound advice. Pallavi - thanks for always being there to help me out and for laughing at my (admittedly corny) jokes. I've enjoyed working with you to perfect the art of procrastination and appreciate your sarcasm. To everyone in my history fair group and the fantasy baseball league, thanks for everything. I'd also like to thank all of the teachers at BIIIS who have made my four years here worthwhile - especially Mr. Niven and Mr. Boschetto, for making me want to learn for the sake of understanding rather than for the sake of a grade and instilling within me a confidence that I have the ability to produce great things. Mr. Felker, too, for teaching me to play the saxophone, which is arguably the most potent stress-releiver available legally and without prescription. To everyone else who has made my high school experience complete, thanks. I'd thank you all by name but I'm running out of Life is sweet. I cherish every moment of it because of my family, friends, teachers and dog. Thanks to my 4th grade teachers for being there for the death of my best friend. Thanks to my family for being there when Gumpa died. Thanks dad for driving me to school. Thanks Mackie for being with me when I was sad, and thanks Diana for not hurting me 'cause I didn't thank you in my thanks

-Us

First, I'd like to thank my family for pushing me, supporting me, and helping me along the way. Thank you for always being the loudest ones in the stands, cheering me on in basketball and in life! Mom- thanks for being an amazing mother and a friend. From our shopping extravaganzas to our long talks, we have shared such incredible times together. Thank you for teaching me how to be a better person and showing me what is important in life. Dad- Thanks for being my first coach in basketball, soccer, and in life. Thanks for always being positive, making me laugh, and knowing exactly what to say to make me feel a little bit better. Jen- You have influenced me so much over the years. I rom giving me rug burns, playing sports, and family vacations you have been such a big part of my life. Tim- Thanks for being my best friend, making me laugh, giving me duck cards, and loving me for the dork I am. I rom holding hands on the DC bus until now; I have been so lucky to share some of the best times with you. I love you. My Eddos! No matter what, we stuck through it together and had so many fun times along the way. I love you girls! Nicky- Soccer, Forrest Beach, sleepovers in your basement, Spain + France, and most importantly RP! No matter what we do it always ends in a laugh. Mel- Florida, getting stuck on a plane, Spain + France, and random WW visits. Theirs never a dull moment with you and I love all of it. Kristina- camping, ice-skating, Granny Isnor's, and dragging me to family parties. Thank you for making me laugh with your dumb comments and contagious laugh. Jamie- TCL in your basement, swimming for hours in the pool, and Balsam Drive fun. You are an incredible friend with the best advice for everything! Colleen- Thanks for being my basketball partner, yelling at kids during refereeing, BDC, and old stale cheetos! Corinne- From soccer to history fair we have had some pretty fun times! Kevin- falso! Thank you for making a joke out of everything! Joe and Josh- Red Sox, RHCP, Joe's basement, and random fiestas. Josh Kal- even though we fight, you truly are a great friend. But I really am fresher then you, my dude! Kevin A- thanks for being my study partner and teaching me about your Indian ways! Scott and Andy- thanks for so many fun times, and thanks Scott for saving my life! Dan- thanks for being such a little flirt and giving me something to laugh about Ashleigh- thanks for fun times in the past. I hope everything works out for you. Bridget and Ashley- you girls are amazing! Bridget BDC, Ash-basketball and BB. Mae, Diana, and Rachel- my favorite sophomores! Thanks for all the fun times! Last but defiantly not least, I would like to thank Mr. Niven. Thank you for coming to my basketball games, being such an influential teacher, and loving life to its fullest. These four years have flown by, thanks for all the memories! Best of luck to everyone!

Thank you BHS for bringing together the sweetest, funniest, clumsiest, smartest, craziest, most wonderful people in my life. Thank you dad for your good humor, coaching soccer (and basketball, and softball...) and for driving past the house. Thank you mom for taking care of me when I was sick. Thank you for taking care of me when you were sick. Thank you Amanda for making ice hacking fun, and everything else in between. Thank you to all my little, and not-so-little, cousins for being as sweet and adorable as all of you are. Thank you to every girl who has ever screamed shrilly with me for no reason. Thank you to every boy who has ever copied my work. Thank you to all my friends, teachers, and "scene kids" for making every lousy, stressful, angry, heartbreaking day bearable, even laughable. Leaving all of you is worse than not getting cast in the school play, or getting cut from the sports team, or having mono. But here's to the good times, the bad times, and the just plain goofy times. To being poised and confidence, to being flustered and a mess. To the future ahead, and the times we can fall back on. Thank you to everyone here who made me who I am leaving. None of you will be forgotten.

Brian Pabian

To the Pabians! Dad- I regret never really letting you know how much you help me on a daily basis. Whether it is homework, advice, or just watching the Pats you're always there to help me or just make me laugh. Mom- Without you I would simply be lost. You're everything I could have hoped for as a loving caring mom, and I can't even imagine what it's going to be like living without you. Mike- It's been weird not having you in the house the last couple of years, and even though we fight on occasion, I know we will always be close no matter what. You're a great older brother. I love you guys lots.

My boys: Dan- Even though you came to Bedford a couple years ago, it seems like we have been friends forever. Whether on the baseball field or out on a Saturday night, we make a good team. Tim- nothing like Friday afternoons playing video games with you, buddy. You probably could make me laugh more than any one else I know and I'll miss you kid. Josh Kipp- We met during second grade and you've been my boy ever since. Other guys to thank: Chris, Joe, Josh Kal (my dude), Greg, Jimmy, Josh T, and Kyle.

Girls: Kels- You were probably the one girl who knew me the best which I think is a good thing, even though it probably got me in trouble sometimes. I have nothing but good memories with you and I know I'm going to miss you when you go off to Cali. Ash- I'm glad we've gotten close over the years and I hope we keep it touch kid. Other girls to thank: Eleni (middle school sweetheart haha), Katie, Ana, Connie, and Lauren.

I would like to thank my lord and savior Jesus Christ. Through him, anything can be accomplished. Family: Thanks mom and dad for working hard and supporting me at baseball games, history fair, etc. Friends: Thanks for the memories and laughs we'd shared together. I hope we stay in contact throughout the years. Teachers: To all the teachers I had... THANK YOU! You guys had a huge impact on how I view myself and the world.

"Life is too precious to worry about stupid stuff so have fun, dance wild, fall in love; say what you wanna say, do what you wanna do, regret nothing & don't let people who don't matter bring you down". Anonomous First I would like to thank my family Mom- I want you to know how much I appreciate everything you do for me. You always know the right things to say when things aren't going so well. I wouldn't be where I was if it wasn't for you. Thanks for waking me up every morning and always being there to talk to. I want to let you know how much I love you, because I don't always show it as much as I should. Dad- We have definitely been through some rough times here and there but we always seem to get through them. Thank you for all the trips to Maine and all the family vacation we have taken. Thank you for always being there to fix things and giving me advice even when its not needed. I love you. Bobby & Matt- Thank you guys for just being you, even though I hate admitting it I love you. My Girls- We always have so much fun together no matter where we go. So many random times: sleepovers at Nickys, random parties, and just hanging out. I'm going to miss all of you so much!! Jamie- We have been friends for as long as I can remember; we have basically grown up together. We have had so many good times I can't even begin to remember all of them. Cancun, Nh, chillin by your pool and just hanging out in your playroom talking about random stuff. You were always there to make me laugh and we always have so much fun together. Thanks for always being there to talk to, and being such a good friend, ily! Mel- We have so many random memories together, trips to brueggers, dying your hair in my bathroom, just hanging out at one of our houses and just being losers. We always had so much fun no matter where we were. Thanks for always being a good listener, and always being there when I needed someone to talk to, ily! Alli- So many fun times in Maine water skiing, tubing, and roasting marshmallows, trips to the country store/gas station hah, you were always down for anything. Whenever we hung out we always have such a good time even if we are just sitting at one of our houses. Thanks for always being there for me and helping me out whenever it was needed. Thanks for so many fun years together ily! Nicky- My red headed friend, thanks for working at CVS with me I don't know what I would do without you there. I think Rose and Sylvia definitely won the award for being the fastest cashiers hah. So many good times in your basement, and just hanging out. You were always there to make everyone laugh. Thanks for always being there for me ily! Ash- Thanks for all the fun times we have had together, but things have definitely changed and I'm so things had to end like this ily! David- for all the fun times we have had together, we have been through so much together... good and bad. Thanks for always being there when I needed someone to talk to, even if you didn't want to hear it. Thanks for everything. I love you. Kevin- You fat! Thanks for always being there to joke around with. We've had some pretty fun times these past few years. I'm definitely going to miss you! Dan- for some fun times the past year. Its been fun having classes with you this year, if it wasn't for you I would be a loner in guitar. Corrine/Colleen/Meg/Court/Brit/Alex- Thanks for all the fun times these past few years, and thanks for always making things ten times more fun. Jerry/T/Manny- for all the fun times this year, just hanging out and being losers.

Matt/Pat/Andy- for some pretty good times and for always finding something to do in this booring town. F-H Girls- This season was a blast, so many good times. Cori V & Amanda my defensive buddies, nice job this year, keep the defense going next year. Charlene we have had so many good times playing fieldhockey together, you did great job this season. Good luck next year girls!

I want to thank two of my teachers in particular who helped me through my years at Bedford High School. The first is Mr. Huff, who helped me as I struggled in PreCalc, and believed in me enough to recommend me for the AP Calc class. He taught me a lot, and I managed to do well on the AP exam. The second is Mr. Niven, my junior year English teacher. He took a subject that I hated, and turned it into one that I enjoyed. He even made my nemesis, writing, enjoyable at times. More than that, he understood who I was, and what I wanted to say, more than any teacher ever has. I'll always remember discussing the quirks and meanings of a certain Sherwood Anderson story with him long after everyone else had gone to break.

MOM:We can talk about anything, and when we laugh we can never stop! Thanks for taking me on fun trips and helping me through everything. I love you. DAD:You are so much fun! Thanks for always making me laugh and making me a sports fan from the moment I came out of the womb. I love you more than the moon, stars, sun, chocolate, and 'twon! DEB:You have always been so good to me; we have a lot of fun times. Thanks for being a great step-mom! Love you. STEVE:for always teaching me things, and for keeping the Celtics tickets. You're a great step-dad. Love you! SOPHIE:we have so much fun together, can't wait until you're all grown up! I love you.

GINA:Thanks for showing me the ropes when I was younger, and always looking out for me love ya! THE EDDOS:So many amazing times: prom/semi, New Years, Powder-puff games, 16th bday celebrations, long sleepovers, crazy parties, and so much more, I don't know where I'd be with out you guys! NICKY:my red-headed twin. All we do is laugh; always having so much fun, even if were just sitting around talking for hours. Fun times in your basement, Spain/France, and so many insiders ("I don't get it!"). I love you! JAMIE:for being my fellow "G". We are so much alike, always thinking and saying the same things, and obsessing over the same kind of people! Fun times starting with the trampoline at Brett's house, to the rock in 7th grade, to all the dances ("déjà vu but better"), to amazing weekends. I love you! KRISTINA:you are crazy! We can't go anywhere without laughing! Always having so much fun, just bumming around when there's nothing else to do. I'm gunna miss picking on you! I love you! ALLI:for being my fellow mom-always falling asleep way earlier than everyone else! So much fun just talking about everything, FL was amazing and everything else! I love you! MIKE: Thank you so much for the amazing times we had, I hope we stay friends for a long time. Good luck with everything, I love you. KEV: for always being there to talk about pointless things. You're such a goofball, I'm gunna miss you! CORINNE: You're insane! So much fun with you: tennis, the Wood, and school! COLLEEN: I'm never gunna forget your laugh, you're hilarious, good times! DAN: I'm so glad you moved here, you're an amazing friend, so many good times! MATT/PAT: for all the fun times, and always yelling at me when I went home early. CLASS OF 07: you guys were a lot of fun, FATZ, JP, thanks for being good friends and having all the good parties! BASILE: Thanks for housing us when there was nothing else to do, and always making me laugh. TODD: You're so much fun to be around, good times at the Wood and parties. MANNY: you are hilarious, so many good times- "dude, WTF!?" TY: you always make the most boring times seem fun! JERRY: you're an awesome baller and friend; I hope to watch you in the NBA someday! DEWAYNE: you might be the funniest person I've ever met-good luck in the high school with our us! STEPH/MEG/COURT/BRITT/ALEX: you girls are crazy and we always have so much fun, thanks for all the good times! ANDY: Good times swimming and chilling at your house, and thanks for being my gardener! SCOTT: for all the amazing parties, and just being your goofy self. THE HAYNES: for putting up with me and Nicky in the morning! In ten years, I can promise you I won't remember much from my high school days... except that this kid and I had second-row seats to the most unbelievable concert of our lives. And that summer night when we were feeling devious and we egged that guy... then got caught (oops). When these kids and I drove to New York City and waited hours in the rain to be front and center, and when they toolled on me for keeping the Happy Birthday tara on. When my (Jamaican) neighbor and I dressed up and trick or-treated... every single year. That kid who sliced open a jelly donut, stuck a hamburger in it, and fed it to me. All you are. Daddy-For being the most caring,hilarious person know. You always know how to lighten the mood when things are out of control in the house,which is most the me. You have showed me what it means to be a hard worker. For coaching so many years,making my lunches, the gourmet dinners&everything else. Jess-For all the family ips and keeping me company,teasing Jules with me,being ch a cool sister and taking me out when we were in hool together,all the rides,looking after me and my hot friends,those hideous faces you make,the infamous utt jiggle&for always listening and everything else. Alle-Poopy-I know you secretly loved all the nicknames ne&less made for you. For putting up a fight when I attacked your cheeks all those years,being such a trooper when we gave you a hard time,we have gotten so much loser over the past couple years,you are one amazing title girl Jules,make sure to hold it down at BHS when I'm one! Family,thanks for always being there&I love you so much! For making fun of us&always being up for a good time. Alex,Britt,Court,Olivia-I for making nights out that much the hours we wasted in Starbucks when we should have been doing something productive. Then, that time I woke up one morning, walked through my yard, and saw all those "strategically placed" patches of dead grass. And that one time, at band camp, when we woke up at four a.m. to prank the boys. (Walt Mayo is epic.) When you guys thought censoring Maroon 5 songs by screaming my name was fun. When we ditched the history fair to watch the newest episode of The Office. (Swag) When Greg Ronco...disappeared. When we thought playing with henna the weekend before school started was a good idea. When we were the only ones up at ridiculous hours finishing content questions. When we found out our favorite Concordian was Bear in the Big Blue House's long-lost twin. When you guys bored me to death with fantasy baseball. The never-ending, wicked annoying That's What She Said. And Dad, Mom, Malika, and Ishaan- I love you...as big as the whole wide universe. Hey, all of you. Thanks so much.

I love you both. Jeremy, Jon, & Jeff- Thank you for teaching me many valuable lessons in life, such as how to play sports and how to burp. You all are such good brothers to me and I am lucky to have you! Granny- You are an amazing woman and I admire everything about you. Thank you for buying me Pringles, sewing my ripped clothes, and the countless other things you do for me. I love you very much. Erin & Nina- Thank you for being the older sisters I never had. I am so happy you are both in my life and I can't wait for the years to come. Mel- You are a loving mother and a strong woman. Thank you for being a great friend and for believing in me. Everything you have told me I will always carry in my heart. Families- Barrett, Bickford/Marshall, Hall, B-P, Sarson, Kiely, Rogers. ABCJKL- From DC to the annual Secret Santa to funny waiters at Lardrock Cafe. The Alphas- Here's to poor aim and being epic. Alpha Major, out. Gingerbread girls- Thanks for letting me be an honorary "Adventure Scout" member. Cooking Club- For the love of food, friends, and cooking. FL10- Earl's. Enough said. Volleyball- Smack that. All Friends- Life; it's been a long road, fun, and sometimes hard, but I couldn't ask for a better group of people to have shared it with. You are always there for me, ready to give advice or awesome hugs. It means so much to me to have incredible friends. This applies to each and every one of you. Thanks.

Steph Terenzoni

First, thank you to my family for everything they have done for me. Mom & Dad, thank you for being the parents you are... Mom, thank you for always wanting to go to the mall, and for having the same weird sense of humor as me. Dad, thank you for always making me laugh even when I'm mad, and for having so many stories about you breaking something. Kim, you aren't just my sister, you are one of my best friends, we always end up laughing until we are in tears. Jason- my brother in law, thanks for always making wonderful Italian at 3am when I am craving it. My friends too, I love you all and high school would definitely be awful without you. Man- thank you for ALWAYS being there, for always listening to me complain, for always being so understanding and chill. Thanks for always being so hilarious and fun to hang out with, we always end up laughing over something stupid (cocoa puffs), thanks for never being dramatic and always being you. Hannah- thank you for always listening and being a blast to be around, I lurve you. Brittany- good times at the shack, and the OG, never a dull moment with us haha. Megan- you are crazy and never boring, and we have had way too many funny memories to write on this. Courtney- Mario party parties, ...other parties, and more good times. Eleni- you're always so easy to talk to, hilarious, and one of the only other people that is as weird as I am. Matt- thanks for always being my good friend and being so fun to be around. Marcus, Corey, Matt, Pat, Justin, Danielle, Ange, Jenna, Z, everyone else that's been there for the good times, and some bad...thank you.

Ana Tkacik

"Like sands through the hour glass, so are the days of our lives"

Thanks to Michelle, for always being there for that, God must have spent a little more time on you. To jooface for being my soul mate, sorry I screwed up your life. To Jacqi for making me want to wear my seatbelt and always playing that damn song. And to Chris, for being Jennifer Lopez and telling the most boring stories.

Alexandra Ulsh

I'd like to thank my Mom for being cooler than me, for doing my laundry every weekend, and for encouraging me to be myself. In addition, my Dad for his delicious breakfasts and support of my athletic and musical endeavors, and my "little" brother Jack for reminding me to chill out occasionally and our intense sibling rivalries. To Mom, Dad, and Jack: I love you all and we'll always have Paris. Also, my friends, current and past bandmates, the BHIS Field Hockey team and Coach Bev Barton for the most exciting yet stressful games of my life, the entire BHIS Foreign Language department for allowing me to take both French and Spanish, Mr. Sunderland for teaching me critical thinking and National History Day, Mr. Stephenson for exposing the beauty of math, and Mr. Niven for guidance about life and humanity's toughest problems.

Sowmya Vearada

Sowmya, Somnya, Sonia, Somaster

I want to thank... Ma for giving me nice things to eat. Daddy for making an honest effort to tell funny jokes. Vishnu for being the ultimate scapegoat and punching bag. Griff for coaching all of our science related teams and ruining my life. Doc Has for consenting to adopt me (and pay for college). Mrs. Kurzman for putting up with our embarrassing science team for two whole years.

Mrs. Luke for letting me check homework in AP Bio, for telling us the fungi joke.

My History Fair project for consuming my sanity and months of my life.

Mr. Sunderland for the content-outline-induced all nighters.

Ms. Henoch for enduring my presence in Latin for four years.

Mr. Niven for being himself.

Nipunn for the illegal trips to MoS and Brown, hijacking Adobe Premiere, and for filling up my gmail chats folder. Marissa for making me feel terrible about dissecting mice and for being shorter than me.

Katherine for goofing off during labs and being my partner in crime.

Soreen for lending me Ocean's Twelve for 7 months.

Liz for still laughing at our lame 8th grade inside jokes.

Sam for patiently listening to me complain about creationists.

Cat for listening to me whine about life in general.

Staci for her kickbutt drawings on my Facebook wall and for the Orlando Bloom poster 3 years ago.

Dan for having a fondue machine and for letting us crash his house after J-Prom.

JK Rowling for not killing Harry.

The lobster hats for winning us the spirit award in Ocean Bowl.

Rifle 8 for letting me shoot a 96 prone.

And finally, my keyboard for putting up with spilled coffee, cookie crumbs, drool, frustrated head bangings, and still serving me faithfully all these years.

Corinne Weeks

DAD- you're more than I could ever ask for. Thank you for the endless school projects, showing me how to be "strong like bull", and being your scoobies. Thanks to you, I now walk into a room and notice the floor pattern right away. MOM- No one can do what you are capable of doing. Thank you for doing my endless amounts of laundry, making me lunch everyday, teaching me to shop, and supporting me in everything I do. I love you both so much. LAUREN- I have looked up to you for everything. Thanks for performing the "Hole-Hoop-Dee-Do", being my distraction from homework, making me laugh no matter the situation, and always responding with "PULL-blo!" GILLIAN- my skittle skuttle. Where do I start? We are by far the two most annoying and weirdest sisters together, and I love it. Thanks for always coming on crazy driving adventures, dealing with my nightly phone calls, peg-leg-pete, nose twitches, and crawling around for lizards. I love you two, and will miss you. COLLEEN- We've been best friends since preschool. From hiking in your woods, to getting separated by the mean tree-lady, to surviving pre-seasons with me, you have always been there for me. Thanks for always seeing eye to eye with me and not getting tied up in all the drama. You're an amazing person, love you! KEVIN- You are my everything. Thank you for the inside seat on the couch, watching What Not to Wear, missing the Red Sox, letting me drive, and having your crazy phobia of ears. Words can't describe how much I will miss you next year, I love you. ALLI- Thanks for my favorite wooden bowls, getting your hair cut in your kitchen, surviving history fair, and counting the days Chu wears the same outfit. NICKY- Thanks for the crazy soccer sleepovers, gossiping with me at soccer (while doing nothing on defense), and always making me laugh. KEV ABE- Thanks for sticking with team Wabe, surviving our AP's, and dealing with my embarrassing outbursts. BRIDGET, KELSEY, AND ASHLEY- Thanks for being the best Prom Committee to work with, I wouldn't have wanted it any different. Thanks Kels for not minding that we own almost the same wardrobe! MEL- Thanks for being the best tennis partner and hanging out at WW dttech with you. Manya: Newbury Street =] Georgia, Dobrochyna, Erika, I love you guys too! & to the Class of 08'—CONGRATS & have fun wherever you go!

Melanie Wilcox

Mom and Dad: Thank you both so much for all you've done for me. I couldn't have asked for better parents. You have always been so understanding, accepting, and loving. Thanks for putting up with me when I was a pain-and for not sending me to live down the street. I feel bad for the other kids because you two aren't their parents. I'm lucky to have parents like you. I love you both!

Megs and Kate: Where do I begin? I love you two. I'm so glad you are my sisters. I think you both are fun, sweet, and loving-even if I don't always show it. Thank you for being my role models for the past 17 years. I look up to you both. You have set the guidelines for who I am today. Thanks for all the good times we've shared as sisters.

Jess: You've been my best friend forever! You've made everyday at school bearable. I have so much fun with you. We have so many great memories and inside jokes, and I can't wait to make more throughout college and the rest of our lives. I love you!

DJ: I love you. You've guided me throughout all of high school; you're my high school sweetheart. Thank you for putting up with me for the past few years. You've been there through the good times and you made the bad times better. We can always count on each other. We've had so many good times together, and we will have so many more good times next year. All the memories and the secrets that we share mean the world to me. You're my best friend and my better half. I love you.

Scott: We've become pretty close the past two years. I couldn't have asked for a better friend to pick on. Thanks for all the rides home last year haha. I hope we stay friends throughout college. Try to stay out of trouble next year- I won't be around to keep my eye on you!

Sunny, Maggie, and Kitty: You guys are the weirdest bunch of pets anyone could ask for. I love you and I'm going to miss you next year!

Mike Wittman

Thanks to: My parents- for all the big things and the one million little things in between. Thank you so much. My friends- for all the good stories and great times. It's been an awesome ride. My family- for all of the support in everything I did. My teachers- for sharing what you know with me. Everyone else not mentioned: You all played a role somewhere, and I thank you for your contribution. Thanks again!

"Shoot for the moon; if you miss, you'll land among the stars."

Thanks to everyone who made high school so special and fun. The gang, for making me an 'honorary azn' and our crazy movie nights. Erica-my bio-buddy, John Park-always talking Sox with me, Staci- all our classes/projects, Rissa history and other adventures, Alex Homegoods, 'nough said, Dennis-my online BFF=] Cat-recycling & enviro, Sowmya&Soreen-apcs and mayhem, Kevin- SAT class and your napping, Dan&Jesse-telling me everything there is to know about ROTC, Nipunn math help and always being up for disc, you guys are all amazing. My JSA buddies for making conventions so much fun, wouldn't have been the same without you. Bill for making sure I always know it's all my fault. Jayson, for making fun of my car and all our Belmont trips. Katie and Pallavi, I don't even know where to start. All my teammates, the soccer girls, Heatha Smiles, Louisa & Gabby, Basketball (Ashley & Joyce, bus rides and Sunday practices) and tennis- my 'twin' Claire for putting up with my craziness and being my partner, thanks guys for making these 4 years so great. Hat for Frisbee and my forehand. Gregg for always being my little bro. This is already way longer than I planned and I'm sure I forgot tons of you, so thanks everybody! I'll see you around.

KELSEY- For being in my classes from second-eighth grade, being Monique, obsessing over the Traveling Pants as much as I did, and for being the one who never forgot that there was a whole world outside of Bedford.

ASHLEY- For going to camp with me all those years, being the blunt of so many jokes, and for loving blindly.

JEN- For being my volleyball and softball buddy, being just as weird as me, meeting at the corner and going on the swings, my sped cot, and for all those Saturday nights we did absolutely nothing together. LAUREN- For being my wifey, never failing to make me laugh, and for "bah meh father?" I am so glad we became so close over the past few years. You guys have always been there and I am forever grateful. I also want to thank: Charlene, Molly I- (for always listening and Grey's), I Hope, Connie, Colleen, Kevin A, Kevin J, ABCJKI, Alphas, the Flonda 10, UMG, people on the France and Spain Trip, the boys basketball team, BDC, and people I dance with (Sarah, Sara, Georgia) or play volleyball and softball with, and anyone else I missed, you all have made my high school experience amazingly unforgettable. Finally, thanks to anyone who has ever made me laugh, I appreciate that. Congrats class of 2008!

First and foremost, I would like to thank my family. Thank you Mom and Dad for getting the best out of me. Your persistence is what got me as far as I am now. Thanks for helping me out so much with all the college stuff... never would've figured it out without you. Thanks for all the food, a bed and the support throughout the years. Thanks Nick for guiding me through all those lady problems. Haha, but really, thanks for being there for me all the time and being that hunk. Thanks to my friends, who have made a tremendous impact on my life. All these years would've been unbearable without you. Thanks for keeping me out of trouble... for the most part. Thanks for all the nights chillen, and those things we just did. Ya dig? Thanks to all my peers and teachers who helped me out succeed in school, and to all my coaches for teaching me how to work hard and how to win. And thanks to all those other people I can't afford to thank!

Wow! Time really has flown by we're finally seniors!! =) woohoo. I wanna give a thanks to Mami & Papi for being the best parents. Brandon & Corey for being the best brothers. I wanna thank Robert aka "Chucky" for these past 3 yrs they have been Massive!!! I love you babe. To Amanda thanks 4 truly being my BFF; good times kid-

"TTBB" meow. Ashley 4 always being there for me luv ya. To Steph, Allison & Olivia for helping me hit that lady at cvs good times! Thanks to the Montaltos for being my second fam, love you guys. To all my Luigi's girls love you. A special thanks to Zappy HEAVY... Thanks to everyone that I missed. It was such a good 4 years thanks. keep it sexy. Congrats 2008!!

The trap team, although I've only been on it for two is great. People who shoot just seem to be more fun hang out with.

First I wanna thank my family for all their love and support, it really means a lot. To my friends, thanks for the great times we'll never remember, for getting into trouble just for fun, and for all the things we thought of but didn't ever do. You've all been great, we've had a lot of laughs. In the end it was all a gag, the mistakes were waiting to be made and we made them all. I wouldn't trade a moment of it for the world...

I would like to thank my family for standing by me all these years. They have always supported every decision I've made, right or wrong. I Love You! Jordyn-you have been and always will be more than a sister to me, you're more like my best friend. I know I can come and talk to you about everything, even if you don't want to hear it. We are closer than we ever have been and I never want that to change. Mom-You have done so much for me, I can't thank you enough. Dad-Thank you for always being there for me no matter what I do sometimes. To all my friends- You've always been there when I needed to talk, or when I needed a good laugh, what more could anyone ask for? Courtney Barchus- "SENSIES FAIL!!" Harry Potter, late nights. We've been through so much. And through it all you've always made me laugh <3. Your Super! Thank you to anyone who has ever given me a ride! R.I.P. Duke Joe- the other most beautiful person in the room! To the G's at New England Nurseries, you guys are incredible!

Shauna Cerasoli

We're done! Mom & Nana thanks for always being there for me. Dad & Papa thanks for always encouraging me to do my best. Nana Pat thanks for always keeping me fashionable and prepared for school. MYMY (Mr. Lewis) thanks for the best advise on my rides home. Trisha thanks for being my cousin and friend. Brittany C. you have been the best friend to me though thick and thin, you're like my second sister.

Alex Coe

Thanks to my family and friends for putting up with me, my drama, and my crude sense of humor, which I'm sure offended someone at some point... every day. I'm not gonna say names, because then I'll forget someone and be called out on it. So if someone forgets to sign this, I'll forget about them. So sign my yearbook.

AJJROTC is the best program this school has. I've made some great friends in it, and the teachers are amusing, although bizarre.

The past three years on the rifle team were awesome. Too many practices makes for a tight knit group, until the season ends and we all run away screaming.

MOM- I want you to know that I love you and thank you for all of the support you have given me in life and the hard times I went through when I was younger. DAD - Ever since I was little you have told me that I will always be able to sit on your lap and I'll always remember that. Even through everything I still love you just the way you are. DB-Where do I start? Since third grade, you and your crazy moods still found a way to keep me smiling. Thanks for being the great friend you are and all of the talks that we had that included just about everything. SAM- Thanks for all those priceless faces and memories and sending me pictures of your outfit in the morning, and next time you talk try not to use hand motions with the exception of our sign language with each other, haha. CHRIS- Thanks for always being there and talking to me when I'm down, you always found a way to make me laugh. BOBBY- Thanks for all the support and advice you gave me. We've always had ups and downs and somehow we always got through them. I even enjoyed your singing every once in a while. BRIDGET- Good times at kids club and dance. Also, Sorry about chipping your tooth, haha. CALLIE- Thanks for being a good cousin, and luckily enough we always have each other to keep entertained at Christmas parties and family vacations... We both know how our family can get from time to time. Soccer girls good luck next year! I want to thank everyone else, congrats class of 2008!

Katherine Cuti

Thanks to my teachers for letting me eat my breakfast in their classrooms.

Thanks to my parents for turning my internet connection back on after 11:30, sometimes.

Thanks to Costco for selling king sized Swiss Miss containers.

Thanks to my guinea pigs for bringing leafy greens into my life.

Thanks to Agent Fred the ninja pirate for many memorable vocab adventures.

Thanks to Italy for simply being awesome.

Thanks to History Fair for my first all nighter.

Thanks to Microsoft Word Count for letting me know this will cost me $20.

And, of course, thanks to all those cool kids who are always up for bike trips in the rain, who eat my lunch, who laugh at me when I'm being dumb, who are up at two in the morning writing papers, who mooch my music, and who know that Super Smash and cartoon marathons never go out of style.

The past few years have been great and passed wicked quick. My parents are the ones who helped me most, especially my mom who asks if I have any done my homework. Matthew, you've the there most of the time and have really impacted my life. Oh, and your family who lets me basically live at your house. Friends have been great. Thanks for the unforgettable, random memories. Peace J

...I'd like to thank all the people, to deserve thanking between October and whenever you finally get to read this, who will have been there for me. I'd thank you if I knew who you will be. With that awkward grammatical situation behind me, I'd like to thank people who have already deserved thanking. To my family, Mom, Dad, Tim, Theresa, Gina, and everyone else, or providing moral support, humor, money, and... well,
I'm sure there was something else. To ROTC, Captain, Chief, and the ROTC kids, for getting me through four years relatively unscathed, and to the teachers (Doc, Ewing, Sundy, Henoch, Niven) who got me to get up off my lazy butt and working at long last. To History Fair, or thoroughly kicking my behind. To my friends who made it all bearable, and collaborated on so many essays, and especially for making those tolerable. To Honey Nut Cheerios and caffeine, which saved me on late nights.
To myself, for actually doing what people told me to do, usually, and for not starting this thanks with the words
"first of all". Last and maybe least, to the dozens of other people, who helped me in other ways. -Audio-Video-

First, I would like to thank my parents mom, dad you both have been the most generous, caring, and supporting people I know. Also, thanks for all the vacations we have gone on and had a great time together. Thank you to my brother Ryan we, unlike most brothers, never fight and enjoy time we get to spend together. You have always had a great sense of humor. No one could ask for a better family. Billy, you have been like a brother to me. We have shared many experiences together not only as great friends but co workers. We have had a ton of fun (whether we are chilling in your basement or going biking, etc). Luke "ma duke" you are a fun, outgoing kid and a great friend. Thanks for trying to get me to eat healthier; it must be frustrating. The road trip to NYC was sick and all the other things we have done (the cape, the mall, movies, etc). Ryan for countless good times together (chilling on Fridays or going to your lake house, etc) and just being you. Alex you are one of the funniest people I know, thanks for all the great times we have had together. Thanks to all my friends for the great times and for being great people. Henry, Robbie, Koushik, Nick, Becca A, and all my other friends, thank you. Ms. Sav thank you for being there to support me through-out my four years of high school and being a very caring teacher. Hotshot you have been my dog since I was 3, you were a very smart playful dog, who thought and acted like you were a person. We will miss you RIP hotshot. Good luck class of 08!

First, I would like to express my frustration about the limit to my thanks; trying to thank everyone who deserves my gratitude in the space of 75 words is nearly impossible. At the risk of being impersonal, I'm avoiding specific names and memories, in hopes that those of you who have lived, laughed, and loved with me will understand how thankful I am to you. And to those who have seen the best and worst of me — Mom, Dad, Nick and Evan — I love you.

Jake Mendales

I would like to thank my family, especially my brothers and my dad for always being there and helping out when they can. It's been a pretty intense twelve years of public education, so thank you. Next, I'd like to thank all the people that I consider my friends. Some of you guys have been here for a while, and others are new additions, but all of you are awesome. Thank you for all the

Brandon Rose

Thanks: I would like to give thanks to my mother for showing me support and helping me get through school. I would also like to give thanks to my aunts who would help me with all my schoolwork and everything else. Thanks Aunty S. for helping me with my Spanish and math work. Thanks Aunty M. and D. for just being there for me and giving me support. I want to thank Moses for giving me as much support as my mom did. I want to thank my brother for always being there and making me laugh most of the time. I hope I didn't forget anyone else in the family, but if I did, thanks. I'd also like to thank all my friends from Bedford and the Base for making this year and last year fun, like Greg, Ryan, Chris and Dan, Harold, D. Chico, Chris E., and that's all I can think of. Sorry if I forgot anyone but thanks, anyways. I want to give thanks to all my friends in Boston, that go to Boston schools, or that are in other METCO programs. I also want to give thanks to some of my teachers, especially Mrs. Sav. I couldn't have done it without you. Thanks for making sophomore, junior, and senior year fun. I think that's everyone I can think of. Thanks again.

Ryan Ruiz

I only get 75 words to thank you guys, so here it goes: To all the people that loved me, raised me, taught me, and showed me how to live, I thank you. Mom, Dad, Britt, Cece, Christian, Cali friends, Turkey friends, Mass friends, and last but not least, Colleen Renee Koonst, for loving me like no one else ever will. I thank all of you from the bottom of my heart. Love always, Ryan.

Lauren Sarson

"Bah, meh, father?" — Bridget

Mom&Dad thanks for continually supporting me, encouraging me, and for countless opportunities, I love you. Kristen thanks for absolutely everything; for cheering me up, and cheering me on. We could do anything together and still have fun, not many have that and I'm so glad we do. Bridget you're everything. Thanks to everyone I want to thank, but don't have room to; you have inspired me and pushed me, loved me and supported me.

Aaron Smiles

I want to thank my parents for putting up with me for 17 years, trusting me, and supporting my soccer no matter what. Heather, even though you fight we both know it with be over in a second, also for helping me remind mom and dad what is cool and not cool. Julie and Bumpa for all the vacations and great times overseas. Granddad and Grandma for always welcoming us with open arms and for starting such a great family. I'd also like to thank the varsity soccer team for all the fun bus rides and dinners we had. I'll never forget those memories of the state tournament. To Keith and Dell, thanks for all the laughs (the goat game). Also, thanks for laughing at me when I choked on pizza and coming to watch my soccer (and dealing with Kaeghan). And to JD thanks for the fun summers we had, all the Revs games, and always being around. Last but not least, I would like to thank God that I'm finally out of here.

Dusty Smith

Rifle Team, Drill Team, Varsity Cheerleading (lots of others). Thanks to everyone in the AFJROTC, everyone who was on my drill team, Captain Carson and Chief Edris. This program and the cadets have made me feel like home. Thanks to all my friends and family. There is only one happiness in life, to love and be loved. Corey N. McCann, thank you for supporting, caring, and loving me in every way, I love you. Remember, there is no rose without a thorn. Loves and hugs, thank you everyone!

Graduation

Graduation is a mountaintop.
Rarely will you get a better view.
Everything in front of you is new.
There is no future good enough
For what we hope to be,
Nor world with windows wide enough
For what we hope to see.
You've overcome so much to get here.
Challenges still lie ahead, too.
We know you'll continue to amaze us,
And you'll always make us proud of you.

Ariel Ashley

We we have watched you evolve from:

Jiminy to Baby Boo Hoo
Cutty to Safari
Mermaid to Devilette
Turtle to Big Sister

We look forward to sharing the next phase in your life.

Your loving family

Dearest Nicolle "Nicky",
From the first moment we held you in our arms, we felt so blessed. Little did we realize the happiness you would bring to us. What a beautiful young lady you have become! You have brought such love and joy into our lives as we watched you grow from a sweet little girl to a warm, kind-hearted, mature woman. Thanks for being such a good daughter and role model for Danielle and Gregory. We are extremely proud of you and all of your accomplishments. We are so happy and excited for you as you begin this new chapter in your life and always know that you have a family who loves you so much and will always be there for you. Just always remember to be yourself, follow your heart and God will lead the way. We love you so much and remember you will always be our special "little redhead". Thanks for all the wonderful memories and congratulations.
Love and hugs,
Mom, Dad, Danielle & Gregory xoxo

CONGRATULATIONS KEVIN!

Bridget

We're so proud of you and of all your accomplishments. The whole world is waiting for you, and you're all dressed up and ready to go! Enjoy the ride knowing that we will always be here for you.

Love you forever,
Mom, Dad and Brendan

Corinne Weeks

Corinne,

We couldn't be more proud of you and all that you have accomplished. Your compassion and dedication to everything you pursue is boundless and your success has been exhilarating for us to watch. You have grown into a beautiful, strong and capable young woman ready to take on the world beyond Bedford. Take all that you have learned, follow your heart, live life to the fullest, and let your many talents take you to new adventures.

We love you. Dad, Mom, Lauren, and Gillian

We are very proud of you!
Love, Your Parents

Lindsay,

We can't begin to say how proud we are of the lovely young woman you have become. Growing up isn't always easy but, as you have found, with adversity comes inner strength. You are a very special person, always remember that. We wish you happiness, love and much laughter. You are truly a blessing and we love you so much.

Dad, Mom, Aileen and Shaylynn

Lindsay McGrory

Greg,

We are proud of your past accomplishments and look forward to even greater things from you in the future. Wishing you all the love, happiness and comfort the world can give.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Jess and Jacob
